Bengaluru: The Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) on Thursday invited a former cabinet minister of the Trinamool Congress to join the party, as the state is set for the upcoming assembly elections.

BJP leader Pragya Thakur, who is also an ex-cabinet minister in the West Bengal government, had resigned from the party last week, citing differences with the leadership.

Thakur's resignation came amidst the party's efforts to strengthen its position in the state ahead of the polls.

The BJP had already invited several Trinamool Congress leaders to join the party, including former minister and senior leader Mukul Roy.
